

1 in the law, the kind of man you want for State Treasurer.

2 DR. JENKINS: There should be a constitutional
3 provision, in your opinion?

4 MR. GOLDSTEIN: Yes, sir.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Following up Dr. Jenkins' ques-
6 tion, what would you think of having the duties of the 7 State Treasurer combined with those of the Comptroller,
8 leaving out names?

9 MR. GOLDSTEIN: We are not talking about indi-
10 viduals?

11 THE CHAIRMAN: I am not even talking about a
12 title such as the word, Comptroller, or the word, Treas-
13 urer, but things in terms of a broad constitutional 14 officer who would be the Chief Fiscal Officer. He could 15 do the work of the Treasurer. He wouldn't need another
16 person to handle that. You could set up a department
17 in this office to do this and go right along, could you 18 not?

19 MR. GOLDSTEIN: The thing is, you still have 20 the checks and balances.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: I mean, you get enough checks
