

1 and balances. You will never get off dead center.

2 MR. GOLDSTEIN: Three top people give you
3 checks and balances, Governor, State Treasurer and State
4 Comptroller.

5 MR. ENEY: The Treasurer has to account to the 6 Comptroller now in some respect, does he not?

7 MR. GOLDSTEIN: That is right, we check back
8 and forth. One checks the other.

9 MR. NOSSEL: There is agreement as to the 10 amount of money in the banks and on the books. This is 11 done on a daily basis.

12 MR. ENEY: I didn't mean that. I thought there
13 was provision in the present Constitution that says the 14 Treasurer has to render a report, annually, semiannually.

15 MR. NOSSEL: I think there is, semiannually.
16 I think it says six months, but actually it is done on a
17 daily basis. That is what they mean, that you are in 18 balance between the two, by that provision that you refer 19 to.

20 MR. ENEY: Following up Dick's question, be-
21 cause the same thing was in my mind and also Martin
