

1 Jenkins, the State Treasurer is not a full time job and 2 hasn't been as long as I can remember. It has been a
3 banker.

4 MR. GOLDSTEIN: I think the present State
5 Treasurer, in order to devote intelligently the time to 6 the Public Works meetings today, you have to go out here
7 and look around and know what is going on in this State.
8 You are buying land costing several thousand dollars an 9 acre, awarding contracts on buildings, several millions of 10 dollars. He serves on the Retirement Boards along with 11 the State Comptroller. Right now, we have over $460
12 million to keep invested. It is a big job with a lot of 13 responsibility.

14 MR. ENEY: Still thinking of Dick's question
15 and not thinking of the title, call him Chief Fiscal 16 Officer, the fiscal part of it, administration of the 17 funds could really be effectively handled by one official?

18 MR. GOLDSTEIN: No question.

19 MR. ENEY: Even though you ^{may} want to have a third
20 man to serve on the Board of Public Works, he doesn't 21 necessarily have to be part of the fiscal setup of the
