

1 MR. HOFF: We were on the same committee.

2 MR. GOLDSTEIN: We got along fine, didn't we?

3 MR. HOFF: With a few minor arguments.

4 MR. NOSSEL: In reality, I don't think we
5 think today, I don't think the State Departments by and
6 large gave any thought to what the politics of an appli-
7 cant for the job who has passed the examination is.

8 MR. ENEY: It is too hard to get anybody.

9 MR. NOSSEL: Yes.

10 MR. GOLDSTEIN: I am sorry Dr. Jenkins left.
11 Last summer we needed people to work in the computers.
12 I called Dr. Jenkins' office. He put me in touch with 13 his best man. I said, Send me three of your best people.
14 I didn't care about religion or color. He sent me three 15 people. We got in touch all over the State. I am not 16 concerned with religion, politics. We want them to be
17 honest and be qualified.

18 MR. ENEY: Let me ask you another question
19 along the same line.

20 MR. GOLDSTEIN: I think my successor in this
21 office will take the same attitude.
