

1 and everything than before in the history of Maryland,
2 is that right?

3 MR. NOSSEL: That is right.

4 MR. GOLDSTEIN: It is like one big family.
5 We don't have quarrels, disagreements. We can sit down
6 in a matter of minutes and resolve any problem. We have
7 a complete confidence in each other which has come about
8 because of years of public service.

9 MR. ENEY: We have never had an elected or any 10 kind of lieutenant-governor. Would your feelings still
11 be the same as to the Attorney General and Comptroller
12 if we were to have a lieutenant-governor?

13 MR. GOLDSTEIN: Yes. He will be the presiding
14 officer.

15 MR. ENEY: Maybe, but we don't know. What I
16 meant, would you still feel the Comptroller and Attorney
17 General positions would be sort of a proving ground for 18 governor even if you had a lieutenant-governor position?

19 MR. GOLDSTEIN: Absolutely. Quite a few
20 States have lieutenant-governors.

21 MR. SACHS: Wouldn't you agree, Mr. Goldstein,
