

1 responsibility of yours, not by an independent auditor as
2 such, but be in your office and responsibility, and then
3 have the so-called independent on the other side, the 4 legislative side. Would that be so bad?

5 MR. GOLDSTEIN: Actually, we audit practically
6 everything before it is paid through our general account-
7 ing office.

8 MR. NOSSEL: That is a pre-audit, which is
9 not nearly as complete as the post-audit.

10 MR. SAYRE: You need both functions, but it
11 seems to me it would be better to have them combined in 12 you, to whom we could pin the responsibility.

13 MR. GOLDSTEIN: If they want to give us man-
14 power and office space, fine. They give us responsibility
15 but not the office space or manpower.

16 MR. SAYRE: When we have this done, are there
17 other functions that I have not mentioned, broad cate-
18 gories that you perform that I am not aware of?

19 MR. GOLDSTEIN: I don't think so.

20 MR. NOSSEL: You have got the long list.

21 MR. SAYRE: They all fit into estimator,
