

1 want to speak for him, is this: If it is possible that 2 the Legislature dedicates specific taxes for specific 3 purposes and does this in a great many cases, then you
4 are going to get a very rigid system of government which 5 is almost going to be or could be unmanagable, and he has 6 suggested that might be desirable to have a specific 7 provision in the Constitution which would prohibit the 8 General Assembly from doing this. Is that what you ask?

9 MR. SAYRE: Yes, as far as to new taxes.

10 MR. GOLDSTEIN: I think that whole situation
11 is sound unless you had a dire emergency that you couldn't 12 anticipate today. Today we live in the Atomic Age, Space
13 Age.

14 MR. SAYRE: You get a lot of things under 15 those circumstances.

16 MR. GOLDSTEIN: That is right. As a general
17 rule, I would say it would be a very sound and good 18 recommendation.

19 MR. NOSSEL: May I make an observation here?
20 Go back in time. We are presently operating under the 21 Constitution of 1867. If that Constitution had contained
