

1 be tied up. Mr. Eney is here and some other lawyers here
2 that know they can come to the Orphans Court at any 3 time, sit down, have a conference, if it be 9 o'clock
4 or after five, and get matters straightened out.

5 I again say with my experience in the 6 Court, my experience as a lawyer, that it would just 7 pile up work, testamentary work, that is running smoothly.
8 I can't understand myself why the Court that is running
9 smoothly and the work is done, why there should be a
10 change. If it can be proven to me or my associates
11 that by abolishing the Court the work would be done
12 better, would be done faster, trials could be had, I will 13 go along with it. But to this point with my experience 14 in the Court, I can't see any abolishing or merging of 15 the Court would help the lawyers or especially the laymen.
16 During my campaign, I am rambling now, but during my 17 campaign I heard Municipal Court Judges who became 18 Municipal Court Judges lately, that they see more people
19 for the first time than any other Court in the State.
20 I disagree with them. I feel that we see more laymen in 21 one week, giving them help and aid, than any Court in the
