2 tremendous amount of people. We have in these small
3 estates 15, 20 of them a day, laymen come into Court 4 without lawyers because the sum of money involved, we 5 have to give personal help to, not practice law but 6 advice and help. If they need it, we send them to 7 Lawyers Referral or other agencies.

8 Judge DiDomenico is not here. He had 9 drawn this report. I would like to put it in as Exhibit
10 1 to the Committee. I think it speaks for itself. It 11 is our jurisdiction. I will let Judge Colgan go on from 12 there. If I can think of anything later or answer ques-
13 tions, I would be glad to.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: Judge Colgan, would 15 you do the same thing for the record.

16 JUDGE COLGAN: My name is C. Warren Colgan.
17 I have been a member of the Orphans Court, Judge of the 18 Orphans Court since March 1, 1965. Previous to that 19 time I had been a member of the Bar since 1938. Former 20 Assistant United States Attorney. Engaged in the private 21 practice of law until my appointment to the Bench of the
