

1 some of the other states, where the legislature meets for 2 a short period of time and recesses and comes back and 3 recesses again and operates all year through, it would 4 probably be something different than we have in Maryland.
 5 When you have a continuous operation of the Maryland
 6 General Assembly, it is entirely different than when you
 7 have a weekly operation.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: We are going to get into the 9 factor of whether this body believes in the work papers
 10 there ought to be some descriptive statement concerning a
 11 continuing body of the legislature or by various sessions,
 12 such as you described a few moments ago. This is true,
 13 and we will make note of this, I hope, so that we don't 14 get away from it. Dr. Winslow?

15 DR. WINSLOW: May I make two comments prompted
 16 by Mr. Eney's question? One is, I doubt very much if you 17 can argue from the local unit to the state unit. The 18 situation, the conditions, the business to be done are 19 quite different. I think you can argue, however, if you
 20 wish to, on this basis.

21 Cities went from bicameralism to unicameralism.
