

1 testamentary problems to come in within a week or two
2 and try to do a good job. It is impossible.

3 MRS. BOTHE: Every four years you have 4 the possibility of new people.

5 JUDGE FRIEDMAN: You can go down the 6 line, not talking about individuals, they don't have the 7 practice, they didn't have the practice when they were 8 practicing attorneys, and as judges, they never had 9 this type of law to come up to and they are just not 10 capable of jumping in within a week or month's time and 11 do a good job.

12 MRS. BOTHE: That brings out another point
13 which is that every four years you run the risk of having 14 someone ascend to the Bench. I am one of the lawyers
15 you are talking about on this Commission that knows
16 just about nothing. You know how rarely you see me 17 there. Yet I could decide to run for Orphans Court and 18 you would be never able to take a vacation, I am afraid.

19 JUDGE FRIEDMAN: Then I could make a living.

20 MRS. BOTHE: What I was going to ask, getting 21 back to this question, we, of course, are only framing a
