2 MR. SYKES: One suggestion I can make.
3 That is no matter which way the Commission may ultimately
4 go on this thing, in the final report the dealing with
5 the Orphans Court should be changed so that the one
6 sentence that Judge Friedman quoted will not be the way
7 the subject is dealt with so that the thinking of the 8 Commission will really be reflected in its report.

9 MR. ENEY: There won't be any doubt about 10 that.

11 JUDGE FRIEDMAN: What page was that on?

12 THE CHAIRMAN: I think I can find it.

13 MR. SYKES: I am sure it is going to be
14 excised.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: We can blame our reporter
16 for that.

17 MR. ENEY: That is grossly unfair.

18 JUDGE COLGAN: Page 13.

19 JUDGE FRIEDMAN: When a lawyer brings in
20 a bad petition, he blames it on his secretary. They used
21 the word abolished.
