

1 agreement that that is certainly one where we will require
2 assigning out to our research assistants because of the
3 scope and the nature of the material that will have to be
4 gathered and digested in order to accomplish it.

5 MR. BROOKS: Excuse me just a moment, Mr.
6 Chairman. I would like to ask what is the source of the 7 two reports that you have mentioned, Mr. Ratchford? Are
8 those available in your office, for instance?

9 MR. RATCHFORD: You're talking about Miss
10 Spencer's study, now?

11 MR. BROOKS: Yes, Miss Spencer's study.

12 DR. BURDETT: They are probably in mine.

13 MR. RATCHFORD: You can probably get them in 14 Dr. Burdett's office.

15 DR. BURDETT: You will have no problem in 16 getting copies. You will have a problem with getting
17 great quantities of copies.

18 MR. BROOKS: Would you send us a copy of each?

19 DR. BURDETT: Yes.

20 MR. BROOKS: Thank you.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Possibly, before we leave that