

1 extensive contacts with legislators in many states. I
2 don't know very many now personally, but I did know quite 3 a few for a period of time due to my connection with the 4 Council and then, after World War II, when we were setting
5 up the National Legislative Council Conference; in the 6 course of these years, I talked with many legislators 7 about this and, of course, the ones who take part in 8 Council activities in the National Legislative Conference
9 and such organizations are, for the most part, the cream
10 of the crop and very, very few of them were favorably
11 disposed to unicameralism.

12 You might say it was because they were familiar 13 with the other system. I don't think it was only that.
14 I couldn't help feeling, though, that their experience,
15 and these were the more able members of the legislative 16 fraternity, I couldn't help but feel that their views
17 were entitled to some serious consideration. Anyway,
18 Nebraska adopted it and the thing was successful there
19 and has been, and I think there is no argument on that 20 whatsoever.

21 Professor Senning who is a member of the