

1 when I finished there, I would go over to Ann Arbor to see
2 some of my friends there and, on this occasion, Carroll
3 Heddy said to me -- he was in charge of the state course
4 at that time -- he said, my state course meets tomorrow
5 morning at 9:00. I wonder if you will come and meet with 6 us and talk to us, and I agreed I would. They had been 7 using my book there for a long time. I couldn't very well
8 refuse, if I wanted to, but I was very glad to do it.

9 When I got there the next morning, here was a 10 member of the Michigan State Senate. Carroll hadn't known 11 he was coming and he was sort of embarrassed that most 12 times he had no visitors and here he had two in one morning
13 and only one class hour, and we agreed that we would pro-
14 ceed and, believe it or not, this senator happened to be 15 one who was a rip-roaring supporter of unicameralism and 16 he presented his view, I presented mine.

17 I wasn't for it. I wasn't opposed to it. I
18 simply said, and I still think that there isn't anything 19 that has been done in Nebraska that cannot be done in 20 Maryland or any other state that has a bicameral system, 21 if anybody really wants to do it. You could reduce the
