2 MR. RATCHFORD: Caroline.

3 DR. BURDETT: Yes, you went to Caroline. How-4 ever, I think this should cut the work down, and you have 5 to realize, Miss Spencer, talking about the magnitude of 6 this thing, spent nearly two years in her analysis. It
7 is a very complex subject.

8 MR. THOMPSON: Mr. Chairman, I should mention
9 that just yesterday I heard that there will be introduced
10 into the general assembly a proposed constitutional 11 amendment which will provide for the consolidation of 12 municipalities at the will of any two or three or number
13 of adjoining municipalities which would decide to merge.
14 That would be a factor.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: That would be a very important 16 factor because it gives a good indication insofar as the 17 thinking of the members of the Legislature which ties in 18 with our own thinking because, at the last meeting of 19 this Committee, it was more or less touched upon and dis-
20 cussed briefly that one of the important ways of meeting
21 the transition to urban life and the complexities and so
