

1 at 2:00. So, please remain until he is through and we
2 will pursue it next Wednesday.

3 DR. WHEELER: I will talk the full fifteen
4 minutes and not have to defend myself?

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Right.

6 DR. WHEELER: I am going to be the college
7 professor, which means I don't have to be either practical
8 or interesting. I would like to say first, though, that I
9 am not currently director of the state constitutional
10 studies project. We brought out these things about five 11 or six years ago. I've had no continuing contact with the 12 program since then, although I recently went back on the 13 program to review these publications. I say that to make 14 clear I am not speaking for the National Municipal League.
15 I don't think they will take umbrage to anything I'm going 16 to say.

17 Actually, I'm more a partisan, generally, but 18 I don't think we would differ on this business of uni-
19 cameralism. I would like to mention a couple of points
20 about theory and history and enter a couple of caveats
21 here and probably end up with some very presumptuous
