

1 There is a wave that can be taken advantage of 2 if you want to bring about some fundamental reforms. That 3 ends my sermon.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: You are going to get some ques-
5 tions. Let me tell you how deeply appreciative we are,
6 and I think we have brought four people here who are as 7 knowledgeable as they are, and we will get Dr. Winslow
8 on Wednesday, and for those who can stay, I hope they will,
9 for some informal discussions, and perhaps we will be 10 fortunate to bring them back. We have really erred in 11 not setting more time aside for this important question.
12 We were very fortunate to have Dr. Wheeler here. We have 13 mentioned his works over and over again.

14 We have some time for a few questions and let's 15 see if we can get some people who haven't said much.
16 Sandy, you've been rather quiet today.

17 MR. HARVEY: What I would like to ask Dr.
18 Wheeler is these other constitutions that the states have 19 been working on recently, in the last ten years they must 20 have grappled with this and I think every one of them
21 came up with a bicameral system. Was there one single
