

1 The second question, and I want to move on 2 because we've got some ten here, is the gathering to-
3 gether of all modern state constitutions with appropriate 4 sections on local subdivisions and metropolitan forms of 5 government.

6 Now, it seems to me that there we clearly see 7 a great deal of hard work has got to be accomplished in 8 the physical getting together of all the modern state
9 constitutions and then digesting appropriate provisions
10 contained there, where they can be of assistance to us;
11 either by way of work accomplished by someone else that 12 we can adopt or at least we will be familiar with before
13 we decide upon our own work.

14 DR. BURDETT: I think the constitutions most 15 recently brought together in a volume was done by Columbia 16 and they --

17 MR. BROOKS: That's right, the Columbia did
18 that, under their study. We have ordered these publica-
19 tions and they will be in our office very shortly and this 20 has an index of similar provisions and where they are in 21 each constitution and will include a copy of each of the
