

1 thing that defeated unicameralism in those states or were 2 there different reasons that they were voted down in the 3 various states?

4 DR. WHEELER: I don't think unicameralism was 5 seriously considered anywhere but Alaska, and they dis-
6 posed of it rather quickly. There has been a resurgence
7 of interest recently. For example, five years ago, I would 8 have said yes, I'm for unicameralism, but I won't spend 9 five minutes fighting for it. I'd rather fight for other 10 things. Now, I think the situation has changed somewhat, 11 so there is a basis -- I wouldn't say there is support for;
12 I'd say there is more of a basis for building support for 13 unicameralism. We've only had -- how many conventions
14 since Baker?

15 MR. HARVEY: What did Connecticut do?

16 MR. BROOKS: They didn't consider that, I don't 17 believe.

18 MR. SCANLAN: It's been raised in Connecticut
19 and raised and rejected in the Rhode Island convention
20 which is still in session and, of course, Baker v. Clark
21 was decided in the middle of the convention. That didn't
