

1 show anything interesting because they were busy with that
2 80-20 formula on reapportionment.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Well, we really have finished
4 right on the button and we have these people to thank.
5 I know that this leads us directly into the two questions
6 which we used as a basis for opening and that is where do
7 we stand in connection with the subject and, secondly,
8 irrespective of whether we hold one position as superior
9 to the other as a committee, where do we stand in respect
10 to whether we shall include both of these issues in the 11 working papers; and here, as I understand it, we must 12 submit this question to the Commission as a whole and it
13 will be with this question that we shall open up
14 Wednesday's meeting and then, hopefully, I guess through 15 some other questions that we ought to submit, such as 16 the one dealing with whether our reapportionment position
17 be one of specifics, such as the constitution now includes,
18 or will it be more in line with the kind of generalized,
19 ceiling and floor position, with regard to representation,
20 which the model includes.

21 Now, Dr. Winslow has some copies of his paper
