

1 because we are now again touching upon the area where 2 great controversy can certainly arise and has to be 3 solved in one way or another, and we are touching upon 4 special commissions and we are touching upon special
5 purpose districts and all manner and sundry related prob-
6 lems.

7 DR. BURDETT: I use this word control very 8 loosely. It illustrates the point you are making that 9 home rule should not serve to prevent some forms of 10 coordination and one which is fairly uncontroversial was 11 brought up at a luncheon meeting at the Maryland Municipal 12 League in Baltimore, in which Senator Malkus made the 13 remark that he felt it is very important in Maryland for 14 the Bar, if for no one else, and it is for others, that 15 we have a law in this State which requires the publication
16 of municipal ordinances in some kind of a single reference
17 set. So that, if some of you are practicing at the Bar, 18 you can find out what home rule provisions under the 19 present Constitution have been enacted, let's say for 20 Takoma Park.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Right now, you are lost in a
