

1 journal, conduct meetings, conferences, seminars and 2 so forth and maintain an information and consultation
 3 service with respect to our aspects of the administra-
 4 tion of justice, and that is including the organization
 5 and the personnel and the administration and procedures
 6 of the courts and the bar and allied agencies concerned
 7 with the administration of justice. Our offices are in 8 Chicago. We have a staff of nine people. And I guess 9 that is about enough, about 60 seconds, at least.

10 MR. MARTINEAU: Let me ask one more question
 11 on the Society, with specific reference to the State of 12 Maryland, do you have a number of members from the 13 State?

14 MR. WINTERS: Yes, we have several hundred 15 members in this State. And Judge John B. Gray is 16 currently a member of our Board of Directors repre-
 17 senting Maryland. Judge Emory Niles has been in the 18 past.

19 MR. MARTINEAU: Mr. Winters, I wonder if you
 20 would review for us, briefly, the experience that you
 21 have had over the last 25 years in dealing with other
