

1 experience with the Society had an opportunity to study
2 and make recommendations with respect to the judiciary
3 articles of a large number of states?

4 MR. WINTERS: Yes. We did that with Missouri,
5 of course. The Society's recommendations were the ones
6 that were adopted in that state. When the New Jersey 7 constitution was revised in 1948, they did not go into 8 selection of judges, but in court organization and 9 administration and other aspects the Society's recom-
10 mendations were received and followed. In the State of 11 Illinois, much the same is true, and that one has become 12 a model in all other respects except judicial selection.
13 The Puerto Rico judicial article of 1952 relied upon 14 our recommendations in most areas.

15 MR. MARTINEAU: Would it be fair to say, then,
16 that over the last 25 years, your entire professional 17 life has been devoted to the study and analysis and 18 recommendations concerning the judiciaries of the various 19 states of the union?

20 MR. WINTERS: Well, I guess so.

21 MR. MARTINEAU: All right. Now, first of
