

1 MR. WINTERS: That is the type of commission
2 that has had the most experience, and I think that the 3 experience with that has been good. When I say the 4 most experience, there still has not been enough exper-
5 ience for anybody to be very sure that the last word
6 has been found. I am not sure that it could not be 7 improved on.

8 MR. CORY: All of these nominating commission
9 members are appointed or are some of them chosen some 10 other way?

11 MR. WINTERS: Well, in all that I know of, the 12 laymen are appointed. Lawyer members tend to be elected 13 by the bar association or by the whole membership of the 14 bar. In Missouri that is the same thing. In fact, I
15 do not know of any instance in which they are elected
16 by the bar association, when there is a difference --
17 for example, the State of Iowa does not have a unified 18 bar as Missouri does, but they do not use the association.
19 The Supreme Court has a system for polling all lawyers
20 without regard to association.

21 MR. CORY: As a practical matter, in the
