

1 MRS. BOTHE: That is announced to the general
2 public?

3 MR. WINTERS: Not the specific evaluation of 4 these things. They do get their answers, they compute 5 them and they determine whether or not the man has the 6 endorsement of the bar, if so, the bar goes out and 7 supports him.

8 MRS. BOTHE: Does he have to get a grade of 9 70 per cent to pass the bar?

10 MR. MARTINEAU: Where they have a non-
11 competitive election, the lawyers vote in the same way
12 that the public votes, should Judge X be retained in 13 office, isn't that correct?

14 MR. WINTERS: Yes.

15 MR. CORY: When this questionnaire is given
16 to lawyers and they do not mark their straw vote, I like 17 Smith or I like Jones, they just answer a set of ques-
18 tions and then those are used as ballots in the straw
19 vote?

20 MR. WINTERS: Let's distinguish, as Bob has 21 just pointed out, in the states that have non-competitive
