

1 MR. WINTERS: I think there is something to 2 that.

3 MR. CORY: I noticed when I tried a case in 4 Kentucky, the lawyer that I was working with had a lot
5 of assignments as a judge. He had been a judge for about 6 five or six times. And I asked about it and he said
7 that in Kentucky they can call on lawyers to sit for 8 limited periods of time or on any limited case. And he 9 had been asked on several occasions to do this. Is that 10 something that takes place in other states? Are you 11 familiar with that?

12 MR. WINTERS: Well, I know they do it in 13 Kentucky. I know of its having been done in South
14 Dakota. Probably there are provisions in some states.
15 I do not believe it is a very prevalent practice.

16 MR. CORY: You do not think it is prevalent,
17 but do you think it is a sound practice, a good thing
18 to do?

19 MR. WINTERS: I think in case of a sudden 20 influx of cases where there is a need to dispose of 21 some cases, that perhaps there would be benefit in
