

1 Commission. It so happens that the other committees are 2 the Legislative, Judicial and the Standard Portions of 3 the Constitution.

4 The educational provisions are the most im-
5 portant assignment of our Committee and will receive a
6 great deal of attention. Mrs. Freedlander is a member 7 of the Miscellaneous Provisions Committee and also the 8 Committee on Elective Franchise and Declaration of 9 Rights which is concerned with the educational pro-
10 visions in the Declaration of Rights.

11 Mr. Eney, I am sure, many of you are familiar 12 with. He is the Chairman of the Commission itself and 13 Mr. Brooks, over there, is our executive director.

14 I told Dr. Pullen who has a bad cold and is 15 a very busy man, besides that, that I would let him go 16 first, before he lost his voice, and he thought that he 17 had enough to go on, so long as the morning doesn't go 18 along much further. So, I will ask him if he wants to 19 be the first speaker and to give us some of his views.

20 DR. THOMAS G. PULLEN, JR.: Mrs. Chairman,
21 I appreciate it. I don't want you to feel sorry for me.
