

1 I feel perfectly all right, but my voice is none too
2 good and I feel that it would be best for me to finish,
3 if you will let me talk, and I can leave you. I would 4 like to use this as the basis of a written report that 5 I should like to make to the Commission. I don't think
6 I am presumptuous because in the letter that Mr. Brooks 7 sent, he suggested that we do just that and, with your 8 permission, I will make it as brief as I can and I will 9 file a written report later.

10 I think, from the standpoint of education, we 11 are very much concerned as to the reason for the change
12 in the Constitution. I am not objecting, Mrs. Chairman, 13 Mr. Eney, at all to this. I think it is always wise to 14 review this, but I think that we should put our purpose
15 in the light, before the people, so we know exactly what 16 we are trying to get at.

17 I think there are three problems. One is 18 housekeeping. Now, if the purpose of revising the 19 Constitution is simply to tidy things up, then I think 20 we're wasting time. Another thing, I think it is very 21 destructive, for this reason. So many court decisions
