5 Maryland address us and I, for one, was quite intrigued
6 with some remarks that former Governor Lane, who is the 7 Honorary Chairman of this Commission, as well, made with 8 regard to the inviolacy of school funds. He made them
9 somewhat offhandedly, but he indicated that there was a
10 certain amount of flexibility involved here, and I
11 wonder if you could comment on that, as a practical
12 matter, from your experience?

17 DR. PULLEN: Good. I didn't know he said that 18 but I say that for several reasons. First, the man is 19 educated. The man has a deep sense of government and he
