

1 it was wonderful, but I didn't like the way it was done;
2 $500,000 in the budget to pay the teachers of the Univer-
3 sity of Maryland.

4 I think you are subverting the democratic
5 representative practice when you do that. I'm talking
6 about government.

7 MR. ENEY: In that situation, the legislature
8 could have eliminated it, could they not?

9 DR. PULLEN: That's true, but this is an easy
10 way to get it over. I think it's wrong. The legisla-
11 ture is the representative of the people and the division
12 of power, as you well know, when you put the legislative
13 power in the hands of the executive, it is tyrannical.

14 MR. ENEY: Did your comment earlier about the 15 Governor's control on the budget go so far as to espouse
16 the idea that in matters of education, at least, the 17 Governor had even less control than he has now?

18 DR. PULLEN: Yes.

19 MR. ENEY: Can you be more specific?

20 DR. PULLEN: Well, every salary in the
21 University of Maryland, every salary in Baltimore College
