

1 MR. ENEY: You said they can raise now only
2 if they provide a special tax.

3 DR. PULLEN: That is exactly right, but what 4 I did say was this, that if the Governor puts -- he 5 decides, and this is not an attack on any individual, 6 gentlemen. This is on government. I don't think the 7 whole educational system of the State, the salaries of 8 all the people should be determined by one man, and that 9 is exactly what it is, particularly if you've got the 10 work and the control of the legislature that the Governor 11 of Maryland has.

12 MR. ENEY: Again, I am not clear. Are you
13 suggesting that this control be vested in the legislature
14 or in the Regents, in the case of the University of 15 Maryland, or in the State Board of Education, in the 16 case of the public schools?

17 DR. PULLEN: I would say no. I think the 18 legislature is the final authority and I would say this, 19 that the greatest criticism, and I've had forty-some 20 years of experience in the State of Maryland and I think 21 it's the greatest place in the world, we're civilized and
