

1 so on, but I do say this, that over the years we have
2 tended in this State to weaken representative government,
3 and I am the chief sufferer. Not personally, but I am
4 thinking now over the years -- well, we're all involved,
5 but only because the people of the State wanted education
6 and they fought, but what about a lot of other depart-
7 ments?

8 THE CHAIRLADY: I wonder, Mr. Eney, I see Dr.
9 Paquin sitting patiently who I assured would be able to
10 leave by 11 o'clock, and I certainly do not want to miss
11 hearing from him or cut off this very interesting area
12 of exploration by you. Could you remain and let Dr.
13 Paquin make his remarks, Dr. Pullen?

14 DR. PULLEN: Surely.

15 THE CHAIRLADY: I have some other questions
16 for you, myself, and I know Mr. Eney isn't through.

17 DR. LAWRENCE G. PAQUIN: Madam Chairlady,
18 members of the Committee, you pose a dilemma to me. I
19 might say, as a newcomer, new citizen of Maryland, I
20 listened to Dr. Pullen in this exchange with considerable
21 interest because it does begin to give me more and more
