

1 the people. Any official is the representative of the 2 people and therefore accountable to them. That is why
3 the State Board of Education in my opinion is probably 4 the greatest body of its kind in the State because you
5 let the State Board do something and all of the people
6 in the State come after them, but there are a lot of 7 other bodies, a lot of other boards who are not account-8 able because people don't know who they are.

9 MR. ENEY: Dr. Pullen, may I come back to 10 the matter you were speaking on a moment ago, because 11 it is not clear to me yet. Are you suggesting that the 12 free public education be extended from nursery school
13 or kindergarten through college, a professional school, 14 or what?

15 DR. PULLEN: I thought I said this, or this 16 is what I meant to say. Yes, in principle. I would be 17 cautious, to this extent. I would know where I could 18 pay for it, but what are you going to do, Mr. Eney, if 19 some parents -- and I think some parents ought to do this -- 20 if some parent brings a suit against the University of 21 Maryland or one of the colleges saying that my child is
