

1 the college level, even though it is not at the grammar
2 school level?

3 DR. PULLEN: I think we are getting into two
4 or three different points. The question is what do you
5 mean by mental capacities? What do you mean by standards?
6 Standards are being changed constantly by colleges, as 7 to admission, but I'm saying that you cannot deny, you 8 cannot take one student that you consider qualified and 9 turn down another one who is qualified because he cannot 10 pay for it.

11 Now, I am not raising the question as to 12 whether the institution should set standards or not. Of 13 course, I think colleges have gone pretty wild on that.

14 MR. ENEY: What you mean is this, to be 15 specific, Dr. Pullen; in public school education, as I
16 understand it, every child is entitled to go to school,
17 whether he has the same capacity or much less capacity
18 than his neighbor. This is a matter of no concern. He 19 is entitled to get whatever he can get out of public
20 education.

21 Colleges don't apply that rule and some are
