

1 THE CHAIRLADY: I think our executive director
2 would be happy to send the letter to you. He understands
3 Dr. Bard's question and --

4 DR. PULLEN: I wouldn't fool with that one
5 very much because that is the greatest safeguard to the 6 children in Maryland, and I think you've got to have 7 some way -- well, let's put it more positively. I think 8 that if you're going to provide for, in the Constitution,
9 as I think you should, for institutions of higher learn-
10 ing, that you must provide an easier way to get buildings
11 and equipment and not lag twenty years behind, as we have 12 done.

13 You see, the decisions -- and again, I am
14 making one simple point -- the decisions as to what 15 happens to the education of tens of thousands of youths
16 made by two or three people, and I'm not criticizing
17 them as individuals. I'm saying that the people want
18 this and they are not getting it because of the processes
19 of government.

20 THE CHAIRLADY: Dr. Pullen, we certainly 21 thank you for your wealth of ideas. If you can
