

1 necessarily that it be retained in this part. We cer-
2 tainly want it retained, but, I guess -- I told you the 3 reason why I thought they chose it. Mr. Eney would know
4 better than I would on that.

5 THE CHAIRLADY: Do you know of any other
6 state constitutions which have such provisions?

7 MR. BURGESS: Yes. There are three or four.
8 I can't tell you -- New Jersey has one now, such a pro-
9 vision, and I know there are efforts being made in four 10 or five other states to have such constitutional pro-
11 visions. I guess this would be a general tendency 12 particularly in the states on the eastern seaboard and 13 on the west coast and perhaps maybe in the middle west.

14 THE CHAIRLADY: We certainly thank you, Mr.
15 Burgess.

16 MR. BURGESS: Thank you very much.

17 DR. ALVIN KUHN: Madam Chairlady, maybe I had 18 better give you my full name. It is Alvin Kuhn, vice-19 president of the Baltimore campus of the University of 20 Maryland; until this past July, executive vice-president, 21 working in College Park. Dr. Elkins is in bed with the
