

1 constitutions across the country, the one in California,
2 the one in several of the other states, and we'll be 3 glad to give background information on this to the extent
4 that it is of some value to the Committee, makes the 5 opportunity for the particular boards involved to be 6 effective in their work. I think always there is a need 7 for limitation. Certainly, in all of these there is the 8 importance of the continuing legislative control with 9 respect to annual budgeting, which is a very powerful 10 control, as you well know. The complete audits, the 11 complete review of everything that an institution of 12 this type may do and the airing of this in public docu-
13 ments that are published on a regular basis. There is 14 no question in the minds of any of us, I am sure, that 15 state government is growing rapidly, that all phases of 16 education are growing rapidly. To some extent, in this 17 kind of a situation, there is a tendency today for a
18 greater portion of decisions to tend to move into bureaus 19 or agencies not directly concerned with the area, such 20 as higher education.

21 The problem, of course, then is one in which
