

1 the public as a whole, I think undoubtedly in Maryland
2 and across this country, looks to the board of the 3 particular institution as being the responsible party
4 for the success or failure of the institution and yet,
5 by a gradual process of executive development in this 6 State, the legislative committees, the actual governing
7 of that institution can gradually pass out of the hands
8 of the governing board.

9 This is the particular item I wanted to 10 present to the Committee. I would be pleased to answer
11 any questions.

12 THE CHAIRLADY: Would you be in a position
13 to submit to us proposed language covering the existence
14 of the State university in the Constitution?

15 DR. KUHN: We'd be very pleased to do that,
16 Madam Chairlady, and I would say a brief position paper
17 of how the Board of Regents itself feels on this; perhaps 18 simple suggestive language and copies of pertinent infor-
19 mation. There have been fine studies on this subject.
20 One was headed by Dr. Eisenhower, of Johns Hopkins, a 21 very fine publication. I believe this type of thing
