

1 DR. KUHN: I believe this particular item
2 should be.

3 MR. ENEY: Would you, for instance, say that 4 if the legislature wanted to give public moneys in aid
5 of any institution of higher education, it could do so,
6 but it could not impose any strings or conditions having 7 to do with the administration of the institution?

8 DR. KUHN: Well, I would suggest in many 9 respects that we have exactly this situation, which is 10 what Maryland now does. It does give funds to private 11 institutions of higher education. It has some strings.
12 It may have some strings on individual students that may 13 go into the institution having to teach, but on adminis-
14 tration, I think this is the phase we're talking about.

15 MR. ENEY: Has the University of Maryland
16 been plagued with attempted controls either by the 17 executive or legislative department in this area, other 18 than control of matters such as salary and the number of 19 teachers and that sort of thing?

20 DR. KUHN: The University of Maryland could 21 not have made the progress it has made in the last
