

1 great detail.

2 DR. KUHN: I'm afraid even the University of 3 California has three pages.

4 THE CHAIRLADY: As I know you are aware, we 5 are quite anxious to produce a document which is terse
6 and covers only the most basic --

7 DR. KUHN: I think the courts in their examina-
8 tion of these constitutional provisions for universities,
9 public universities, have tended to single out very short
10 passages in this total. For example, in the University
11 of California item, just the first three lines have 12 really been singled out as a basis for the university
13 to move ahead and not all the rest of it. It has no
14 particular importance in context.

15 THE CHAIRLADY: Would the university have been 16 precluded from moving ahead without such provision in 17 the California Constitution?

18 DR. KUHN: I don't think anybody could say
19 whether it would or would not. You can say, I think, 20 regardless of the student incident that may not in the 21 long run be a benefit to the nation at all, but the real