

1 DR. KUHN: I'm a little confused at this
2 point and, like Dr. Pullen, with a gentleman like Mr.
3 Eney around, I'm not going to pose as a lawyer, but I
4 wonder if this isn't basically talking about free speech?
5 Doesn't this cover it in the broader sense, whether it's 6 in the --

7 MRS. FREEDLANDER: We generally think of the 8 Bill of Rights as protecting an individual.

9 DR. KUHN: I see what you mean; an institution
10 versus an individual.

11 MRS. FREEDLANDER: Or the government, as far
12 as the United States Bill of Rights protects you against 13 government interference.

14 DR. KUHN: I can only say this. Anything of 15 this type which tends to insure the continuing freedom
16 of the institution would be helpful. It's been amazing 17 to me living in the midst of -- my work has often been 18 with the physical and fiscal aspects of the growth of 19 the university. This is where you attempt to get con-
20 trol. Seldom any more will there be a real assault on 21 academic freedom and, if it comes, you can usually get
