

1 it properly looked at and it is not really, you know,
2 where the institution is controlled.

3 The University of North Carolina is one of 4 the only recent ones I have seen where there was a
5 tendency of taking the matter of free speech, bringing 6 speakers in and starting to control the university, but 7 it successfully worked out of this in a short while this 8 past year. It would be wonderful to have it, whether 9 the whole attitude of the people of this State is such 10 that it is not needed. This would be a question you 11 might want to look at.

12 MRS. FREEDLANDER: Thank you.

13 THE CHAIRLADY: I would like, if we may, to 14 get down to some more pedestrian and less idealistic
15 concerns and call on Dr. Zimmerman at this point who is,
16 I understand, an expert on the practical workings of 17 Section 52, the budget provisions regarding the inviolacy
18 of the school funds, because our Committee is somewhat 19 confused as to how it actually works; not whether it is 20 desirable or not as an abstract proposition, but exactly
21 what it accomplishes and what would happen if we saw fit
