

1 these provisions in effect. The Constitution should
2 provide for the establishment of a nonpartisan lay
3 State Board of Education to head the central education
4 agency. This board should be empowered to, one, appoint
5 the chief State school officer, two, exercise general
6 supervision of the education in the State, three,
7 coordinate educational activity in the State, four,
8 formulate general education policies, rules and regula-
9 tions within the framework of the statutes of the State.

10 Also the Constitution should provide that the 11 chief State school officer be designated as, one, execu-
12 tive officer of the State Board, administrative head of 13 the State Department of Education, administrative officer
14 of the State for executing the laws, rules and regula-
15 tions relating to education which arise under the State
16 Constitution, State statutes or policies of the State
17 Board of Education.

18 Now, I don't subscribe to each of those as I
19 read them, but I have prepared a section for making the 20 State Board a part of the Constitution and I have copies
21 for you. If you want me to read them, I would suggest
