

1. buildings. Those are the items, and the aid for handi-
2 capped children, $600 per child, for handicapped children
3 is a mandated item likewise.

4 MR. ENEY: Is it necessary to protect this
5 any further by constitutional provision than it is
6 already protected?

7 DR. ZIMMERMAN: In the Constitution?

8 MR. ENEY: Yes.

9 DR. ZIMMERMAN: I think this is good. I would
10 suggest that not be changed.

11 MR. ENEY: It is not necessary that there be 12 anything added to it?

13 DR. ZIMMERMAN: No, I don't think so. It has 14 worked through the years and it states very clearly and 15 concisely what we mean.

16 MR. BROOKS: Dr. Zimmerman, I would like to 17 differentiate for a minute between the provisions of 18 Article 3 of the budget, to which I think you have been
19 addressing yourself, and the third section of Article 8,
20 which speaks about keeping the educational funds inviolate.

21 As I understand it, actually today all the
