

1 a number of counties, and I wonder if you have any com-
2 ment on whether there should be any provision in the 3 Constitution?

4 MR. SARTORIUS: Well, you know there was a
5 bill passed in Baltimore County and it went to referendum
6 and the people spoke. They did not want their money to 7 go for non-public transportation. They have already 8 spoken on that. So, it is the will of the people in our 9 county. At least, that was true two years ago when the 10 referendum went for a vote by the people. So, the people
11 in Baltimore County at the polls registered their pro-
12 tests.

13 THE CHAIRLADY: Do you feel there ought to 14 be an constitutional comment, one way or the other, on 15 the subject?

16 MR. SARTORIUS: I haven't thought that through 17 and I haven't talked to other superintendents about that 18 particular item. It seems to me that money appropriated 19 for public schools, if it is to be kept inviolate, would 20 mean -- and I think the local funds should be kept in-21 violate too -- but you probably don't want that in the
