

1 constitution, the way we have it today, at least, if you
2 go by a model type constitution.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: I don't think it is trespassing
4 upon the responsibility of this Committee to say now that 5 I think the general thinking of all of the members of the 6 Committee is that much of that material is going to be 7 eliminated and what we are hunting for -- well, we want to 8 be certain that we have considered all of the various 9 aspects as we undertake to do just that, apply the knife.

10 DR. BURDETT: It is going to be eliminated from 11 the Constitution, but not repealed.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Exactly, and there, of course,
13 we hope, too, by the way in which we rewrite the Consti-
14 tution and accomplish the Constitution and rephrasing the 15 actual responsibility and providing for the exercise of 16 function, that better legislation can come out in improve-
17 ment, as well as what is existent. There are many good
18 laws that really have long since served their functions
19 and ought to be taken out of the statute books somewhere.

20 Well, I think we are satisfied that that is an 21 important question to be researched and we ought to have
