

1 Constitution of Maryland.

2 Coming to Article 8 directly, now. There has 3 been much discussion here. I hesitate to say much about 4 this. I would call your attention to the fact how 5 beautifully this section has held up, Section 1, over
6 100 years, despite our expanding culture and growing
7 technology, both of which are essential to modern day
8 society.

9 Now, I have italicized practically everything
10 in there and in a moment I would like to take it phrase
11 by phrase, if I may. May I say here, and I don't know 12 whether rebuttal is granted one at this point or not,
13 but there has been much discussion here about whether or 14 not the university should be granted constitutional 15 autonomy.

16 Well, may I say that my connection with the 17 University of Maryland has been pleasant and, of course, 18 as Dr. Kuhn said -- now that he is gone, I perhaps should 19 not object, but with thirteen years of teaching exper-
20 ience, practically all of my direct teaching experience
21 was in the field of higher education and, Madam Chairlady
