

1 concerned, and they are clear-cut in regard to how much
2 will be matched. At present, up to $300 for each full
3 time student in community colleges. Now, unless we know
4 we can depend upon this, we are really lost and this 5 comes as part of the community college code that was 6 established in 1961.

7 The same would apply in terms of capital
8 improvement, where 50 per cent of our capital improve-9 ment funds come from the State and I would add here that 10 it is but one illustration of the significance of all 11 of this.

12 I would endorse Dr. Zimmerman's position in 13 regard to adding -- and I say this as President of a 14 community college -- adding into the Constitution some 15 statements dealing with the State Board of Education
16 and the State Superintendent of Schools. I like the 17 idea of adding equal opportunity for all children. I
18 really think -- perhaps, I wouldn't have the word
19 children. I would add for children and young people
20 and the youth, or citizens, perhaps making it broader 21 than even youth. I think it is especially important
