

1 If it will get a better education for the children in
2 the State of Maryland, I am all for rocking the boat
3 good and hard, but I do see that we could rock the boat
4 to a point where we are doing a disservice, and I hope
5 that you will take into consideration all the things
6 that have been said and retain the very best. Thank 7 you.

8 THE CHAIRLADY: Thank you very much, Mrs.
9 Robie. Well, I have twenty minutes after 1:00. I think 10 we can spare maybe two minutes, if any member of the 11 Commission has any urgent question to ask, particularly 12 of the speakers we have heard, to run through some 13 quickly.

14 MR. ENEY: Can I ask Major Lamborn to comment
15 on one thing very briefly? Do you think it would be 16 desirable to have in the Constitution a general pro-
17 vision somewhat along the lines of the phraseology of 18 Article 43, but more specifically directed toward 19 private schools and the desire of the State to further 20 education in private schools as well as public schools?

21 MR. LAMBORN: Mr. Eney, I am not as familiar
